CHAPTER 254

(Senate Bill 337)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 100 of Article 81 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1962 Supplement), title "Revenue and Taxes", sub-title "Tax Sales", sub-heading "Foreclosure of Rights of Redemption by Equity Suits", providing that in Baltimore City, under certain conditions, the holder of a certificate of sale of property sold and purchased under the provisions of the sub-title "Tax Sales" of Article 81 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, may file a bill in equity to foreclose all rights of redemption at any time after 60 days from the date of sale.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 100 of Article 81 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1962 Supplement), title "Revenue and Taxes", sub-title "Tax Sales", sub-heading "Foreclosure of Rights of Redemption by Equity Suits", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

100. The holder of any certificate of sale, his heirs or assigns, may at any time after the expiration of one year and a day from the date of sale, file a bill in equity to foreclose all rights of redemption of the property to which such certificate relates, as hereinafter provided. The right to redeem shall, nevertheless, exist and continue until finally barred by decree of the court of equity in which the foreclosure proceeding is filed. Unless a proceeding to foreclose the right of redemption is filed within two years of the date of the certificate of sale, the said certificate shall be void and any and all right, title and interest of the holder of the certificate of sale of his predecessors thereof, in and to the property sold shall cease and all money received by the collector on account of the said sale shall be deemed forfeited, and shall be applied by the collector on the taxes in arrears
